AN ACT

To incorporate a Society by the name of

THE PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY for

PROMOTING THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY, AND FOR THE RELIEF OF FREE NEGROES UNLAWFULLY HELD IN BONDAGE, AND FOR IMPROVING THE CONDITION OF THE AFRICAN RACE

Section 1. Whereas—a voluntary society has for some years subsisted in this state, by the name and title of "The Pennsylvania Society for the Abolition of Slavery, and the Relief of Free Negroes unlawfully held in Bondage," which has evidently co-operated with the views of the legislature, expressed in the act of this commonwealth, passed the first day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, entitled, "An Act for the gradual abolition of slavery," and a supplement thereto, passed the twenty­ ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, entitled, "An Act to explain and amend an act, entitled an act for the gradual abolition of slavery."

And whereas this society have lately extended their plan so far as to comprehend within their intentions the improving the condition as well of those negroes who now are, or hereafter shall become, free, by the operation of the said acts, or otherwise, and their posterity; and have, by their petition to this house, prayed to be created and erected into a body politic and corpoporate, for the purpose of increasing their ability to be useful in the several matters aforesaid.

Section 2. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted, by representatives of the freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and by authority of the same, That the present members of the said Society, viz.—Dr. Benjamin Franklin et al.: And such other person and persons as shall be hereafter mentioned, and their successors, be and they are hereby created and declared to be one body politic and corporate in deed and in law, by the name style and title of "The Pennsylvania Society for Promoting the Abolition of Slavery, and for the Relief of Free Negroes unlawfully held in Bondage and for Improving the condition of the African Race," and shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able to sue and be sued, implead, and be answered unto in all courts of law and equity, and to make, have and use one common seal to give authenticity to their acts, deeds, records and proceedings, and the same at their will and pleasure to break, alter, change and make anew, and to purchase, take and hold by gift, grant, demise, bargain and sale, will and devise, bequest, testament, legacy, or by any other mode of conveyance, any lands, tenements, goods, chattels, or estate, real, personal or mixed, or choses in action, not exceeding at any one time the yearly value of fifteen hundred pounds lawful money of Pennsylvania in the whole; and the same to give, grant, bargain, sell, demise, convey and assure to others for the whole or any lesser estate than they have in the same, in such manner and form as the said Society at their future meetings hereinafter described shall order and direct; and to apply the rents, issues, and profits, income and interest of such estate, and the monies arising from the sales of any parts thereof, to the uses, ends, intents and purposes of their institution, according to the rules, orders, regulations, and constitution of the said society, now in force, or which, according to the provisions hereinafter made, shall from time to time be declared and ordained, touching and concerning the same, as fully and effectually as any natural person or body politic and corporate within this state, by the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, can do, and perform the like things.

Section 3. (As amended pursuant to decree of Court of Common Pleas No. 3, of Philadelphia County, March Term, 1900, No. 399.)

And be it further enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the officers of the said Society shall consist of one President, two Vice Presidents, one Secretary, one Treasurer, who shall also be keeper of the common seal, and so many counsellors as the said Society shall from time to time think proper to appoint and elect, and the Board of Managers composed of the President, the two Vice Presidents, the Secretary and the Treasurer of the said Society and four other memers of the said Society, all of whom shall be chosen annually by ballot of a majority of votes of the whole number of members who shall be present at the Annual Meeting, which shall be held on the last Fifth day (Thursday) of the Fourth month (April), in every year, or at such other time and at such place as the said Society shall by their rules and orders direct and appoint.

Section 4. (As amended pursuant to decree of Court of Common Pleas No. 3, of Philadelphia County, March
Term, 1900, No. 399.)
And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Society shall and may hold one Annual Meeting as provided for in section 3 at such place and hour of the day as they may agree unto in every year forever hereafter, and may adjourn said Annual Meeting from time to time, and shall and may hold such other special meetings as the Society by their rules and orders shall direct and appoint, and shall and may hold such other meetings as the President of the said Society shall think necessary to call, or one of the Vice Presidents of the said Society, at the request of any six members thereof shall call, of which special meetings notice shall be given in two of the public newspapers printed in the city of Philadelphia, at least ten days before the time of any such meeting, at any of which annual or special meetings or adjournments thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Society, or so many of them as shall meet, by a majority of voices to agree, to ordain and to establish such by-laws, rules, orders and regulations as they shall judge necessary for the well-ordering and governing the said Society and for the well-managing the affairs thereof; and to fix and ascertain the terms and conditions upon which new members shall be admitted to the said Society and upon which former members may be removed, and to define and ascertain the duties of the several officers of the said Society, and for want of obedience in any of the officers of the said Society to remove and displace them and others to appoint, and generally to agree to, ordain and establish all such by-laws, rules, orders, and regulations for the well-governing of the said Society, for perpetuating a succession of its officers, and performing the duties they have undertaken, or shall undertake, as the said Society at any of their said annual meetings, or special meetings and adjournments thereof, shall by a majority of voices determine to be right and proper. Provided always, nevertheless, that no real estate shall be disposed of, or the right and estate of the Society therein be lessened, or altered for the less, unless the President, or one of the Vice Presidents, and at least twelve members shall be present at such meeting, and a majority of those present shall agree to the same, and provided also that all and every the by-laws, rules, orders and regulations already enacted and made or hereafter to be enacted and made by the said Society be reasonable in themselves and not contradictory to the constitution and laws of the Commonwealth.

Section 6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Constitution of "the Pennsylvania Society for promoting the Abolition of Slavery, and for the Relief of Free Negroes unlawfully held in Bondage," as enlarged at a meeting of the said Society held at Philadelphia, the twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and all rules, orders, regulations and proceedings made and had by the said Society in pursuance thereof, be and they are hereby declared to be in full force and binding upon the said Society, by this act, created and incorporated, until the same shall be repealed, altered or annulled at a quarterly or special meeting or adjournment thereof, to be held in pursuance of this act, as fully and effectually as if the same to be originally adopted by the said Society, hereby incorporated and created at one of their said meetings.

Section 7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That until the next election which shall be held by the said Society in pursuance of this act, the said Benjamin Franklin shall be the President thereof, the said James Pemberton and Jonathan Penrose shall be the Vice Presidents thereof, and the said Benjamin Rush and Caspar Wistar shall be the Secretaries thereof, the said James Starr shall be the Treasurer thereof, and William Lewis, Myers Fisher, William Rawle, and John D. Coxe shall be the counsellors thereof, and that all and every the committee and committees herefore appointed by the said Society for promoting the abolition of slavery and for the relief of free negroes unlawfully held in bondage, shall be and continue to be the officers and committees of the said Society hereby created and incorporated, and shall report to, and account with the same, in the same manner, as they would have done to the former society in case this act had not been passed.

Section 7. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this act shall in all things be construed in the most favourable and liberal manner to and for the Society, in order to effectuate the privileges hereby granted, and that no misnomer of the said corporation in any deed, will, testament, gift, grant, demise or other instrument of contract, or conveyance shall vitiate or defeat the same, if the said corporation shall be sufficiently described to ascertain the intent or the party or parties to give, devise, bequeath, convey, or assure to, or contract with the said corporation hereby created by the name aforesaid. Nor shall any non-uses of the said privileges hereby granted create any forfeiture of the same, but the same may be exercised by the said corporation notwithstanding their failure to meet at any of the times herein specified, to hold their annual elections, the officers elected at any of the said annual elections, shall continue to hold and exercise their offices until others shall be duly elected to succeed them, at some future meeting of the said corporation.

Signed by order of the House,

RICHARD PETERS, Speaker.

Enacted into a law at Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine.

PETER ZACHARY LLOYD,
Clerk of the General Assembly.

Section 8. (Added pursuant to decree of Court of Common Pleas No. 3, of Philadelphia County, March term, 1900, No. 399). That it shall be the duty of the said Board of Managers to conduct all the business of the said Society (except the sale of real estate), to receive bequests, to sell securities other than real estate, and to invest and reinvest and keep invested the funds of the said Society and to provide all things necessary to carry into effect the object of the said Society, and to pay all the expenditures incurred in and about the premises; and it shall be the duty of said Board of Managers to meet at least once in three months, to supply any vacancy therein, to enact rules and regulations for the government thereof, to keep regular minutes of the proceedings, and the same to exhibit when required to the said Society, and to make an annual report to the said Society.

BY-LAWS
Adopted 4th Month 25th, 1901.

Article 1. Members. Any person, 21 years or over, of good character, desiring to promote the objects of the Society, shall be eligible to membership in it. To become a member, his or her name must be proposed at a meeting of the Board of Managers, or general meeting of the Society, and must then receive a majority vote at a subsequent regular or special meeting of the Board or of the Society; but no person holding a slave shall be eligible to membership.

Article 2. Dues. From and after the first day of First Month, 1902, each member shall pay into the Treasury one dollar a year on or before the Annual Meeting; any member who has not made this payment when the Annual Meeting convenes, shall be disqualified from voting thereat, and subsequently, upon due notice, his membership may be suspended by vote of the Board of Managers.

Article 3. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the time of the Annual Meeting, and on the last Fifth day (Thursday) in the Seventh, Tenth and First Months.

Article 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Managers shall be called by the President, or, in his absence or inability, by either of the Vice Presidents, and the Secretary shall send written notices to the members of the Board.

Article 5. Chairman. The President, or, in his absence, one of the Vice Presidents, shall preside at each meeting of the Board of Managers, or, if they shall both be absent, a chairman pro-tem. shall be appointed.

Article 6. Quorum. Five members of the Board of Managers shall form a quorum.

Article 7. Orders. Orders on the Treasurer for the payment of money shall be signed by the President, or chairman pro-tem., presiding at the meeting of the Board of Managers in which the payments were authorized, and attested by the Secretary of the meeting.

Article 8. Amendments. These By-Laws may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the Board of Managers; but the change must have been proposed, in writing, at a previous meeting and notice thereof sent to each member of the Board of Managers.

LIST OF MEMBERS.

   Chas. F. Jenkins, Farm Journal, Phila., Pa.
3. WILLIAM C. HINCH, 78 Rode Street, New York, N. Y.
7. ANNA M. JACKSON, 215 E. 15th St., New York, N. Y.
8. HENRY WRIGHT, 727 Walnut St., Phila., Pa.
12. MARY R. LIVELY, 513 W. Main St., Norristown, Pa.
15. JOHN BURTON, 133 S. 4th St., Phila., Pa.
18. J. J. HENRY ROBERTS, 50 Beekman St., New York, N. Y.
23. ROBERT BIDDLE, Riverton, N. J.
24. HENRY GUTHRIE, Swarthmore, Pa.